

Anyone Selling Or Serving Alcohol In Grand Forks Must Complete

Responsible Alcohol Server Training

If you are a manager, bartender, server, seller or bouncer at a bar, restaurant, motel or bottle shop in Grand Forks, the law says you must be certified.

This training is only available online and can be accessed by visiting www.grandforksgov.com and clicking on the “Server Training” icon. Certification is valid for three years.

Any person in violation of this law can be fined for not being certified.

Responsible Alcohol Server Training is required by the City of Grand Forks to assist alcohol servers and sellers with:

- » Understanding and complying with the law
- » Detecting and deterring underage consumption
- » Identifying the use of fake IDs
- » Minimizing over-consumption

Questions? Call the Grand Forks Police Department at 701-787-8031.