

Accreditation Manager

The Grand Forks Police Department's goal is to become an internationally accredited law enforcement agency. In August 2011, the department formally enrolled in the Law Enforcement Accreditation program with the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). CALEA was created in 1979 as a credentialing authority through the joint efforts of law enforcement's major executive associations.

Criminal Investigations Bureau

The Criminal Investigations Bureau's (CIB) main task is to investigate crimes that occur in Grand Forks. Through investigative means we attempt to identify suspects and supply prosecutors with information needed for a successful prosecution, we also find evidence which protects innocent people from being charged with a crime.

Community Resource Bureau

"In partnership with the community, we will employ traditional and nontraditional methods to reduce the fear of crime and be proactive in stopping crime and protecting life and property"

The Community Resource Bureau's (CRB) purpose is to provide a partnership between police officers and the residents of Grand Forks. CRB is the main focus of community policing based programs and activities.

Facilities and Equipment Bureau

Equipment Maintenance: The equipment maintenance section is responsible for the operational upkeep of Police Department equipment.

Property and Evidence: The property section is responsible for procurement, inventory and issuing uniforms and equipment vital for officers to successfully perform their assigned duties. The evidence section is responsible for the accounting, coordination and reporting of thousands of pieces of evidence, which later may be used by detectives, prosecutors, defense attorneys, the Courts, and the property and evidence technicians themselves.

Human Resources Bureau

The primary functions of HRB is to organize, coordinate and oversee the department's recruitment, retention, hiring, promotions, work force safety, pay and benefit issues, performance evaluation systems, training, educational internships, work study positions and other miscellaneous volunteer programs.

Office of Professional Standards

The Office of Professional Standards reports directly to the Chief of Police and is primarily responsible for internal affairs, policy & directives, grants administration, and public information. This office also publishes the department's annual report and oversees the awards committee.

Records Administration Bureau

The Records Administration Bureau (RAB) is responsible for the archiving and maintenance of all GFPD records and reports. In addition, RAB handles and directs telephone and walk-up inquiries to the department.

Uniformed Patrol Bureau

The Uniform Patrol Bureau (UPB) includes the sergeants and patrol officers who provide around the clock law enforcement services to the Grand Forks community. Officers within the Uniformed Patrol Bureau pride themselves on responding quickly to calls for service and providing professional services.
